Through

The Lady Medical Officer,

Robertsonpet, K.G.F.

Sir,

I beg to state that I am a clerk working in the Stores Section of the above Hospital, having been recently transferred therefrom the Government Mental Hospital, Bangalore.

I humbly crave your indulgence to place before you, this my humble representation, for your generous consideration:-

1) I joined service as a ticket clerk in the Minto Ophthalmic Hospital on 25th January 1941, and was transferred to the Mental Hospital on 8th July 1941, and from there I was transferred to the Kolar Gold Field Maternity Hospital on 14th August 1941.

2) My father is an old gentleman with no means of subsistence having a number of children, all depending on me. My younger brother has commenced his college education this year in Bangalore after completing his High School education. It is very difficult for me to make both ends meet if the joint family is to be thus broken.

3) Under the circumstances, I humbly beg of you to have my lean transferred from the Medical Unit to the State Insurance Department by which arrangement the hardships we are put to now, might considerably minimised.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A brief history of my
Service and my qualification:-

1) Appointed ticket clerk on 25-1-41.
Transferred to Mental Hospital on 8-7-41.
Transferred to K.G.F. on 14-8-41.

2) Qualification:-
